UNITED WAY OF GREATER KANSAS CITY

Throwback to Give Back, Saturday November 7

110 millennials dressed in their best 90's gear completed eight projects in KCPS and celebrated at Westport Ale House.

- » 860 students and 75 teachers returned to school on Monday to bright sidewalks, new books and clean playgrounds.
- » LINC completed 228 hours of volunteer work.

Pints for a Purpose, Saturday FeBREWary 27

Volunteers completed five projects at reStart followed by a celebration at the Ruins Pub.

- » 124 volunteers fed 50 residents, moved 144 pieces of furniture, making more than 100 residents' lives brighter.
- » LINC completed 248 hours of volunteer work.

To the Point - Happy Hour with LINC, Thursday April 28

LINC volunteers gathered at Ale House rooftop to celebrate a combined 476 hours of service while sharpening pencils for a local kindergarten teacher.

Field Day, Friday July 22

Over 60 millennials left work early on Friday afternoon to host 140 KC kids in a traditional Field Day at Washington Square Park. Kids and volunteers played with a giant parachute, raced in potato sacks, and ended the afternoon with a water hose thanks to KCFD!
